The Woman Un Jardin à Paris

« She walks in a garden in the heart of Paris.

She goes to a rendez-vous. She is in love. She is happy.

With her unique Parisian style, her allure is irresistible and utterly elegant. She is very feminine with a « je ne sais quoi » of cheeky, her own touch of fantasy.

Paris is for her the only place where she can fully express her emotions and deeply live the romance ».
